

Stand out, Have No Fear, Have Your Say

www.ohmyenglish.co.kr

OH! MY INTERVIEW

- Job Interview

Job Interview Questions

How did you prepare for this interview?

Sample Answer

When I found this position posted on the internet I was immediately interested. I checked out the company website and mission statement, looked at the bios of company founders and executives, and was impressed.

What adjectives would you use to describe yourself?

Sample Answer

I am a conscientious, hard-working, honest and courteous person. I put my heart into everything I do, whether it be sports or work. I find that getting along with your peers and being part of the team makes life more enjoyable and productive.

What is Your Greatest Strength

Sample Answer

My greatest strength is that I get along well with others. I can make new friends very easily. I am a people person so I like to know the people around me and I like to be friends with them so that there are not very many conflicts. I feel that getting along well with others is my greatest strength.

What is Your Greatness Weakness

Sample Answer

My biggest weakness is I don't know how to say NO, although I know that it's hard, still I say YES. That's why I'm always busy researching and exploring many things to be able to finished the tasked given to me..

How Do You Handle a Challenge

Sample Answer

I handle a challenging situation by putting myself to stay cool and not panicked so that I can think well for the possible solution of the problem the soonest possible. If the problem is beyond my knowledge and power then I inform the other person to give me ample time to study the problem. Once I have a solution, I will approach them immediately.

Do You Prefer to Work Independently Or On a Team?

Sample Answer

T- together E-everyone A- achieves M-more.

Listen & value others opinion, then convey your points. Interpersonal skills sometimes overlap with spoken communication skills. When others are treated with respect the feel understood & appreciated. To make their experience as positive as possible, then excellent interpersonal skills are essential.

Why did you choose this line of work?

Sample Answer

I like the job because it can offer me lots of opportunities to go deep into the fields which more or less refer to before to extend my structure of knowledge and enrich my previous experiences.

How Do You Handle it if the Boss is Wrong?

Sample Answer

I'll make sure I get all the facts and present it to him/her. The Boss can't be right all the time and sometimes if they see you correct them, they'll think twice about letting you go because a Boss doesn't always want a yes person, someone must always be there to tell him no sometimes.

Why Should We Hire You?

Sample Answer

You're Hired!

I am reliable and have complete dedication and passion about my work. Also my responsibilities are my first priorities. This job profile suits me and this would be the ladder for me to move towards my goals.

What Do You Expect From a Supervisor?

Sample Answer

Someone who recognizes your strengths and weaknesses and uses these in support of the team and the business. A supervisor should be supportive, caring and approachable as well as directive and gives regular feedback and praise in a supportive manner.

What qualities do you feel a successful manager should have?

Sample Answer

The key quality in a successful manager should be leadership--the ability to be the visionary for the people who are working under them. The person who can set the course and direction for subordinates. The highest calling of a true leader is inspiring others to reach the highest of their abilities.

What is your salary expectation for this job?

Sample Answer

I'll need more information about the job and the responsibilities involved before we can begin to discuss salary. Can you give me an idea of the range budgeted for this position?"

What kind of training qualifications do you

Sample Answer

I didn't get formal school training for this job but I have 2 of years of experience in the field. I'm willing to learn new skills or go to school to get further training if I am offered the job. I learn quickly and I like to keep upgrading my skills.

What are your long-term goals or career plans?

Sample Answer

I hope to become very good at my job and perhaps take some schooling to become more skilled in my field of work. I also want to be promoted someday.

What do you see yourself doing in five years?

Sample Answer

It is an uncertain world and one can't predict what is going to happen. However, my hope is that I will have contributed to the success of the company and grown both personally and professionally within my position.

Why do you want to leave your job?

Sample Answer

In all honesty I wasn't really looking to move jobs, but this looks like such a great opportunity to use all my skills and experience and I have always admired this company

Can you take instructions - and criticism - without feeling hurt or upset?

Sample Answer

Yes, I can take instructions - and more importantly, I can take constructive criticism without feeling hurt. Even with the best intent, I will still make mistakes and at times someone will have to put me back on the right track.

Why do you feel you are a better candidate than others?

Sample Answer

I can bring to this job a determination to see projects through to a proper conclusion. I listen and take directions well. I am analytical and don't jump to conclusions. And finally, I understand we are in business to make a profit, so I also keep an eye on cost and return.

What have you learned from the jobs you have held?

Sample Answer

Previous work experience

More than anything, I have learned that what is good for the company is also good for me. So, I listen very carefully to directions and always keep my superiors informed of my actions.

We are ready to make an offer. Are you ready to accept today?

Sample Answer

Based on my research and the information I have gathered during the interview process, I feel I am in a position to consider an offer. I do, however, have a personal policy that I give myself at least 24 hours to make major life decisions. I could let you know by tomorrow.

